About the Seminar

Spirituality is being viewed in new perspectives today. It is not seen as renunciation and emancipation from worldly responsibilities anymore. Spiritual Dimension of personality is very important dimension as it is directly related with values and character formation and also social aspect of personality of an individual. Along with IQ and EQ SQ (Spiritual Quotient) is also being evaluated for development of human values and good citizenship qualities in the students, this aspect needs to be taken care of since childhood by the teachers and the parents. Regular activities of the educational institutions such as morning assembly, teaching methodologies, co-curricular activities and total atmosphere of the institute, quality time spent with parents does matter in the development of this aspect of personality.

This seminar is an endeavor to look into various dimensions of spiritual development and the possible means to develop it through education.
